is a relation between two sets X and Y a function such that each input is related to only one output. image (beld) $\frac{2}{2} \leq Y:$ $\left\{ f(\alpha) | \alpha \in X \right\}$ $\chi: X \longrightarrow Y$ = set into which every output of a function is constrained to fall elements of X are called arguments